

Trans Health Panel

Packard 466, 6pm-7:30pm | Thursday, October 22nd refreshments served after

Join us for a panel discussion and Q&A session centered around the issues relevant to transgender people in the healthcare system today.

Inclusive Leadership 5x10 credit will be offered!

Our panelists:

Kim Watson will be joining us from NYC to discuss her community organizing work with trans communities and on-the-ground needs within trans communities of color from her perspective as a trans woman of color.

Peggy Cadet will be traveling from Vermont to discuss her experience as a trans and intersex-identified woman as well as her work as an educator, researcher, and activist.

Sandy James will be traveling from Washington, DC, to discuss his experience as a trans man of color as well as his work with the NCTE on the transgender discrimination survey/US trans survey.

Sponsored by: Africana Studies, The Dialogue Center, Health Advancement and Prevention Strategies, Health, Medicine, and Society, Library & Technology Services, Office of Academic Diversity, Office of Academic Outreach, Women, Gender & Sexuality Studies

